DEFEAT OF RADICALISM

The two outstanding features in the recent national and state elections were the overwhelming defeat of labor radicalism and political radicalism.

The American Federation of Labor, through President Gompers, had carried on a better fight against any candidate who had ever opposed radical labor demands and who opposed the Plumb plan for socialization and labor control of the American railroad system.

November 2nd was a bad day for Samuel Gompers and the American Federation dictators as results proved that more than 90 per cent of organized labor refused to be delivered to Mr. Gompers party or to be told how to vote. Not a single active champion of the Esch-Cummins railroad bill was defeated, although organized labor had been instructed to vote against every advocate of the measure. Supporters of the measure and men who fought labor radicalism were re-elected by overwhelming majorities in great labor states.

The vote on this issue alone is clear proof that the people of the United States says no to labor radicalism and wish to give the new railroad law a trial, having faith that in the end it will be preferable to turning our vast transportation properties over to political control.

Coupled with this defeat of labor radicalism, western states turned down by overwhelming majorities the socialistic nonpartisan league, single tax measures, laws to establish artificial interest rates, and various laws upsetting long established property rights between man and wife, and numerous experimental, socialistic and theoretical schemes, all tending to injure industry and community development. The entire result of the election was a reparable illustration of the logical working of a sound public consciousness that was able, when the test came to pick the wheat from the chaff.

UNDERSTANDING BEATS LEAGUE

The overwhelming defeat of the nonpartisan league in various western states was a complete surprise to the league leaders as well as to the conservative elements.

In Colorado, Montana, Idaho and Washington, where the league had the strongest following, it was completely routed. In North Dakota, the only state under nonpartisan league domination, its hold was broken and the state has been saved from political control by intimidation and class dictation.

The defeat of the league is due to the underlying common sense of the average citizen. He may be dissatisfied with conditions but when it comes to overturning our form of government in favor of a program of state socialism such as the nonpartisan league advocates, he will think twice before he casts his vote.

The vote against the league was brought about by a growing understanding on the part of the average citizen that inauguration of the league program would eventually end private property rights and individual initiative in the country.

Negroes Dislike the Hound.

The southern negroes hate the hound. They say it used to be a nice sleek watchdog which Adam left to guard the gate of Paradise, but it went snuffing around to find a hare or rabbit and let the old devil sneak in. Then the Lord said it should be a dog no longer, but a hound, always hunting and always starving, so to hear a hound is a bad sign.

Habit of Decision.

Most people who have succeeded in any direction of activity can trace the measure of their success to the habit of deciding things for themselves. One of the greatest temptations we have is to confide in others. By yielding to it we not only become a nuisance to our friends but keep on lowering our own powers of resistance.

Cancellation.

It's a mighty good thing that you ain't great enough to see the river on fire, for in that case what in the world would the fishermen do for a place to loaf the time away?—Atlanta Constitution.

MILITARY HEADDRESS - VOGUE IN PARIS

The old military headdress and high plumes are gayly dashing to and fro in Paris as in the days when worn by generals. Only today military has adapted them to her needs by using various combinations of color and possibly an extra buckle here and there.
